21st-CENTURY PATRONS

For centuries generous patrons have supported musicians and composers. Without these people we would not be able to enjoy the vibrant musical culture that we do today. Although the world around us has changed substantially since those days, classical music still relies on the support of generous music lovers who enjoy music today and want to ensure that future generations can continue to enjoy such excellence and variety.

The Friends of Orchestra Europa play a central role in supporting our pioneering vision, ensuring that we can continue to offer young musicians from around Europe valuable career-building and performance opportunities. Their generosity is also allowing us to develop a revolutionary educational outreach programme that is designed to revitalise interest in classical music and, more importantly, instrumental playing in school children of all ages. Orchestra Europa has a fully-inclusive policy which ensures that children and young people have access to our events and programmes, but this wouldn't be possible without the support of the Friends.

By joining the Friends of Orchestra Europa you will be joining a group of 21st-Century patrons who want to make a difference to the musical world. Membership will also give you access to a number of exclusive members' benefits, including priority booking for our main concert series, invitations to rehearsals, receptions and other events throughout the year, the opportunity to meet with world-class artists who will work with the orchestra, the Europa musicians, and members of the orchestra's administration, and a number of other benefits. Join today help us to make a difference.
